JusticeMakers

2020 Competition for Women Lawyers to Advance Access to Justice in Indonesia

About

JusticeMakers is a global program that connects passionate members of the criminal defense community, it is a competition that supports innovative proposals that seek to curb abuses within the legal system. Through the competition, JusticeMakers Fellows are named, trained and supported, giving the best and brightest agents of change in criminal justice and human rights the opportunity to share ideas and innovate together to safeguard the most vulnerable within the criminal justice system. The 2020 JusticeMakers competition is open to female lawyers in Indonesia.

Prize

With the support of the European Union, International Bridges to Justice (IBJ) will select 10 women JusticeMakers fellows who will each be awarded 10,300 euros plus other benefits to bring about sustainable change within the criminal justice system. Fellows will receive support and mentoring from IBJ.
